

Board and Division Structure

Board of Directors

The TGWA Board must appoint chairs of the membership, convention, and continuing education committees, and may appoint other committees as needed. Committees may form subcommittees and must have representation from each division.

C&D Division

- Elects 30 directors to the TGWA Board
- Division members can hold key roles leading TGWA committees

M&S Division

- Elects 15 directors to the TGWA Board
- Division members can hold key roles leading TGWA committees

GWS Division

- Elects 10 directors to the TGWA Board
- Division members can hold key roles leading TGWA committees

Executive Committee

The TGWA Executive Committee is elected from among the board members.

The Secretary automatically becomes President and the President automatically becomes the Past President, creating a six-year presidential tree.
